

JAY BENNETT

Associate

Jay Bennett joined Kidder Mathews in 2022, working with Holly Yang, CCIM. Jay is a proven self-starter with a passion for real estate. As an investor in multifamily residential properties, he has performed acquisition, property management, and general contracting work. Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Jay held a successful career in the oil & gas industry, providing $60 million in value, while reducing greenhouse gas emissions.

Outside of the office, Jay spends time with his wife and 2-year-old son. Having been born and raised in the Pacific Northwest, Jay loves all things water, skiing, and hiking.
