Jason, an executive vice president and shareholder at Kidder Mathews, specializes in office and flex/industrial leasing, sales and strategic planning throughout the Puget Sound's Eastside market. He has a thorough understanding of the market and has been involved in over 2,000 sale and lease transactions, with a total transactional value over $4 billion dollars. He is annually recognized as one of Kidder Mathews top producers.

Jason retired as a professional lacrosse player, where he was the team captain for the Washington Stealth of the National Lacrosse League, and was the youngest captain to win the Championship in 2010. He had an outstanding 7-year professional lacrosse career playing for the Boston Blazers, Colorado Mammoth, and the Washington Stealth. Following his playing career, he remained with the team as assistant coach for the Washington Stealth, and continues to work with hundreds of local Washington lacrosse players of various ages and skill levels.

Jason currently helps coach numerous sports teams in Washington and is very active in the local communities, volunteering with organizations such as the Boys and Girls Club. Jason resides on Mercer Island with his wife and three boys.

EDUCATION

Jason received his Bachelor of Science in psychology from the Ohio State University in 2006. He was a two-time captain of the Ohio State Buckeyes lacrosse team, winning Big Ten championships in two of his seasons. He also attended the University of West Florida where he completed his coursework in 2008 for his master's degree in psychology.
