

WILLIAM R. BOYD, JR.

Executive Vice President

No other broker specializing in office space has participated in as many lease transactions or been responsible for leasing as much office building square footage in the Tri-Cities market as Bill Boyd.

From the beginning of his commercial real estate career in 1981, Bill has managed transactions totaling more than 6.5 million square feet of office space and earned the distinction as one of the most respected commercial real estate agents in Los Angeles County and specifically, the Tri-Cities office market. As the team’s chief strategist and negotiator, he leverages his unparalleled experience, market expertise and “client centric” philosophy to the benefit of clients.

His prior experience includes serving as executive vice president and managing director of the LA Metro region for the Grubb & Ellis Company, most recently serving as a senior managing director with Charles Dunn Company. Previously, he was with CBRE for 17 years in the company’s Los Angeles and Glendale offices, where he represented the interest of lessors, sublessors, lessees, sellers, and buyers. In 1990, Boyd was the top income producing office broker in the United States for CBRE, and after only two years at Grubb & Ellis, he achieved national distinction as a member of the firm’s “Circle of Excellence.”
