

STARR BRYANT-HARRIS

Property Manager
Property Management Services

Starr Bryant-Harris is a property manager in Kidder Mathews' Roseville office, where she manages a diverse portfolio of office buildings and retail space. With over 15 years of commercial real estate experience in the Bay Area, Starr brings her knowledge and expertise of class A, industrial, retail and flex property management to the firms' Sacramento portfolio.

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Starr managed a large industrial and business park portfolio for Indcor Properties while at Colliers Parrish. Starr and her team focused on large capital improvements, as well as the overall maintenance and management of the properties. Starr also worked for a small boutique management company where she managed 500,000 square feet of class A office space in Pleasanton, California. She worked closely with her management and engineering team, vendors and brokers to develop and implement a streamlined management process. She was also responsible for accounting, budgeting and monthly reporting.

Starr has a strong understanding of property management and all it encompasses. She is dedicated to providing superior service to her clients and tenants. Starr and her family operate a small farm and she also volunteers on the Nevada Union Junior Miners Board of Directors, as well as the Penn Valley Little League Board of Directors.
