

LORI COLEMAN, RPA®

Senior Vice President & Market Leader, Northern California & Greater Los Angeles Asset Services

Lori Coleman leads Kiddier Mathews’ Asset Services teams in Northern California and Greater Los Angeles. Lori has been in the commercial real estate industry since 1993 and is experienced in asset, property, and project management for office, industrial, retail, and hotel assets. Lori is responsible for developing and directing the property teams to provide best-in-class service, partnering with clients to identify and execute value strategies, ensuring financial reporting compliance and risk management, and business development.

Lori has 17 years’ experience with Madison Marquette, where she was responsible for West Coast assets from Seattle to San Diego, totaling over $2 billion in assets under management and working with over 20 institutional and private clients. Lori has led ground up development and renovations valued at over $500 million. Lori also has extensive experience in financial management, acquisitions/dispositions, leasing, tenant relations, capital improvements, facilities maintenance, and problem-solving. Lori is a values-based leader who approaches every day with unabashed curiosity and a desire to contribute in a meaningful way.

EDUCATION & AFFILIATIONS

Lori is an active member of ICSC and CREW, holds a California real estate license, and a Real Property Administrator (RPA®) designation from the Building Owners and Managers Association (BOMA). Lori received her Master of Public Administration degree in community development from San Francisco State University and her Bachelor of Arts degree in law & society from the University of California, Santa Barbara. She was the recipient of the NCRE 2019 Women of Influence award, was honored as a Heart of Gold Volunteer from the Telegraph Hill Community Association, and regularly volunteers for a variety of community organizations.
