George Crawford specializes in tenant representation, and acquisition and disposition services in the Greater Los Angeles areas. He is a 20-year veteran of the commercial real estate industry.

Prior to that, he spent ten years as a brokerage executive in Indianapolis, IN, where he developed and nurtured accounts as large as county government portfolios, corporate headquarter acquisitions and dispositions, and as modest as local office leases and sales. He is an experienced educator and strategist who backs his recommendations with solid research and market knowledge. Clients have praised George's forward thinking approach to service.

In addition to advisory services, George has been a contributor to local and national real estate publications writing articles that analyze dynamics of the Los Angeles office market. These publications include, The Real Deal, CoStar News, Los Angeles Business Journal, and SoCal Real Estate. His practice focuses on guiding executives through the real estate process so they feel good with their decision about a significant and long term financial commitment.
