Dane specializes in both leasing and sales of industrial properties located in the greater Seattle-Tacoma area.

By representing tenants and buyers as well as institutional and local owners, Dane understands both sides of the deal. This allows him to make informed decisions that benefit his clients' best interests by applying in-depth market analysis, strategic timing, and effective negotiations to every transaction.

Dane's knowledge of the Seattle-Tacoma industrial market allows him to add immense value when representing local and national groups looking to achieve their real estate strategy. He has an industry-wide reputation for an unparalleled work ethic, and when combined with his creativity, is used to consistently deliver advantageous deal terms for his clients.

Dane graduated from Washington State University with a bachelor's degree in finance and a focus in real estate. Outside of work, he enjoys snow skiing, golfing, and playing ice hockey.
