JD is part of the multifamily brokerage team led by Executive Vice Presidents Dylan Simon and Jerrid Anderson, which represents investors and developers in the purchase and sale of apartment buildings and development land ranging from $1 million to more than $100 million.

Focusing in the Puget Sound and along the I-5 corridor, JD specializes in the sale of apartment buildings, development sites and off market acquisitions.

With generations of real estate professionals in his family, JD has grown up around the industry and is committed to being a trusted advisor for his clients – offering deep market knowledge and critical guidance to address their ongoing strategic needs.
