

FRANCESCA GARIBALDI

Senior Associate

Francesca is a graduate of UC Santa Barbara, where she received a BA in communication. Prior to her senior year of college, Francesca was recruited by Tesla Motors to facilitate the opening of their brand-new store in Santa Barbara. Immediately following graduation, she was selected to assist in the opening of their flagship showroom in San Francisco. Shortly after moving to the Bay Area, Francesca transitioned into software sales and began working for a Forbes Cloud 100 company in the heart of the financial district. Francesca relocated home to the Central Valley where she was raised in 2019. Highly skilled in direct sales and business development, Francesca’s background provides her with a strong foundation to provide top of the line customer service at lightning speed compared to her peers in the industry.

AREA OF EXPERTISE

Francesca focuses on tenant advisory and landlord representation for office and medical office product throughout the Central Valley. Francesca joined Kidder Mathews to focus primarily on helping businesses achieve their objectives throughout the real estate process. With years of multi-faceted experience, Francesca provides a well-rounded and full-service experience for her clients.

Francesca is excited to be back in the Central Valley close to family. Using her sales experience, she is equipped with the necessary tools to build and cultivate meaningful relationships with her clients to help them achieve their goals. Francesca is trustworthy, diligent, and provides the most up to date market information to her clients. Her number one priority is to provide first class customer service.

In her free time, Francesca enjoys walking her dogs, wine tasting, and riding her Peloton.
