

MICHAEL GEORGE

First Vice President

Michael leads a wide range of complex projects at Kidder Mathews. He has specialized expertise in alternative investments, property acquisition and disposition, and affordable housing.

Michael lives Downtown with his wife and two young children. Outside of work he has actively dedicated himself to making Seattle a place where people of all ages and incomes can live full lives. Michael co-founded Parents for a Better Downtown Seattle, a non-profit dedicated to making Downtown a better neighborhood for children. He has also served on the Seattle Public Schools Capacity Task Force, the Facilities Master Plan Task Force, and has volunteered on countless projects aimed at making Seattle work for people of all ages and incomes.
