

CHRISTOPHER GIORDANO

Senior Vice President, Shareholder

Christopher Giordano is a Senior Vice President and Shareholder within Kidder Mathews of Los Angeles. His specialty within commercial real estate is a focus on properties within Greater Los Angeles and the surrounding submarkets. With over 13 years of experience in the sale and leasing of properties within those markets, Chris has distinguished himself as an industry leader in the marketplace. His specific experience working on office transactions will be particularly valuable on this assignment. As a native Angeleno, Chris is familiar with the economic and political drivers of growth in the city, and is dedicated to staying ahead of market research, trends, and strategic forecasting. He understands his clients' needs on a personal level, thanks to his family experience in commercial real estate investments, and is backed by a best-in-class network of industry professionals while providing unmatched personalized service.
