Keith has more than 30 years of experience as a lead negotiator and is highly experienced at structuring and analyzing complex, creative real estate transactions.

As one of the top brokers on the Eastside, Keith provides exceptional expertise representing building owners as well as tenants. He has successfully leased several of the largest office projects on the Eastside.

Keith has extensive knowledge of the local medical and office markets and uses this information to match tenant and buyer needs with the right building and location. He combines his significant experience in handling sales and lease transactions with excellent negotiating skills. Keith has successfully represented many firms with acquisition and disposition requirements.
