Tyler is a senior vice president in the Portland office of Kidder Mathews. He focuses on the exclusive representation of owners in the disposition and acquisition of multifamily properties, as well as business development, transaction management, & advisory services.

Tyler has been involved in transactions throughout the Pacific Northwest, but his primary attention is focused on Oregon and Southwest Washington.

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Tyler served as an associate director for a national provider of capital market transaction services specializing in multifamily sales. Tyler has worked in both the information technology and accounting industry and leverages his experience in both fields to provide a comprehensive advisory role for his clients in asset valuations, market analysis, and other advisory services. Tyler also sits on the leadership board of the Children's Cancer Association.
