

FOUY L. LY

Senior Vice President, Shareholder

Fouy L. Ly serves as senior vice president for Kidder Mathews, specializing in retail, office, and industrial properties. With over 17 years of commercial real estate experience, Fouy has closed over $2 billion in investment real estate transactions.

Fouy attributes his success to hard work and a client focused business model. He believes in taking care of his clients and putting their interest above his own. His dedication for delivering value has enabled him to consistently list and close transactions.

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Fouy was a senior director at Cushman & Wakefield, and previously was at Sperry Van Ness. Before pursuing his commercial real estate career, Fouy managed and operated numerous restaurants, gaining valuable marketing and sales experience. This extensive background helped Fouy lay the foundation for his success in the commercial real estate industry. Fouy's recent transactions include, the sale of Qualcomm Building in San Diego, Murrieta Center East in Murrieta, The Plaza in Huntington Beach, Orange Tree Marketplace in Redlands, Pico Rivera Marketplace in Pico Rivera, Samantha Marketplace in Moreno Valley, Town Center in Signal Hill, Food 4 Less in Hawaiian Gardens, Otay Mesa Land in San Diego, County of San Bernardino office buildings in Ontario, Triangle Square in Costa Mesa and a Wal-Mart portfolio encompassing 20 states.

Fouy is a member of the Orange County chapter of the Chinese Association. Through the organization, he has been involved with several fund raisers and community projects such as raising money for schools and senior housing, as well as participating in food drives to help the community. Fouy's broad and current real estate experience enables him to provide his clients with valuable direction, a professionally managed process, and effective results.
