

ALEX MATAR

Associate

Alex Matar is one of Kidd Mathews' up-and-coming real estate team members. As an industrial specialist with an unsurpassable work ethic, he prides himself in going the extra mile to ensure that the needs of his clients are met each day.

A firm believer that integrity goes together with excellent service, Alex approaches each and every client relationship with transparency and respect. He understands that the devil is in the details, and consistently remains on top of industry trends and financial analysis for the benefit of his clients. This thoughtful approach has resulted in several multi-million-dollar lease transactions, and he is just getting started.

While attending California State University at Fullerton, Alex interned at Newmark Knight Frank Commercial Real Estate Firm where he first got his feet wet in the industry. An inherently passionate individual, Alex found his calling through this internship and has set his eyes on a long career in the commercial real estate field.

A resident of Newport Beach, Alex enjoys surfing, golfing, and playing basketball, in addition to working with philanthropic organizations such as the Boys and Girls Club and Habitat for Humanity.
