Bentley McKean is a Vice President at Kidder Mathews with a primary focus on industrial and investment properties. He is well-equipped with an understanding of market trends within Southern & Central California, investment analysis, and the intricacies of negotiation.

Bentley McKean specializes in the acquisition and disposition of industrial property and commercial development sites throughout Southern California and helps clients buy investment properties nationwide. Bentley enjoys building relationships and helping his clients navigate large and often complex problems to plan and achieve their immediate, long term, and generational real estate goals.

Bentley joined Kidder Mathews in 2022 as a vice president, but started his career at Marcus & Millichap in 2018, where he was awarded M&M's Rising Star Award (2020) and Emerging Core Award (2021). At the age of 24, Bentley became one of the youngest to have ever earned the "Certified Commercial Investment Member" (CCIM) designation, displaying his early exuberance for real estate investing. Bentley enjoys his work and is always looking for innovative knowledge, tools, and tactics to help improve himself as a real estate professional.

Bentley went to Ventura College for 18 months to get his AA in economics before deciding to take charge of his own education and explore his broad ranging interests in subjects such as: business, finance, technology, and entrepreneurship to name a few. Aside from his passion for real estate, Bentley enjoys laughing, traveling, reading, being outside, and expanding his network by meeting new people.
