Zeke Pelluer first joined Kidder Mathews in 2022 as a summer intern, where he assisted with the sales and leasing of religious, non-profit, and educational facilities. In 2023, he became an associate under the guidance of Steve Pelluer and Kim Hutchins.

With a passion for excellence, Zeke places a high value on honor, consistency, and credibility. He is an advocate for his clients and is eager to assist them in achieving their goals.

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Zeke graduated from the University of Washington's Runstad Department of Real Estate with a bachelor's degree in real estate and a minor in business, specializing in commercial real estate and data analysis. Zeke played as a tight end for the UW Huskies for four years, while simultaneously receiving the PAC-12 Academic Honor Roll in 2020 and 2021.
