David Saghian is an associate vice president at Kidder Mathews. He is a multi-family broker in the Los Angeles real estate market.

With a track record of over $100 million in apartment and land sales, David has firmly established himself as a trusted authority in the industry. His unwavering commitment to excellence, coupled with his unparalleled knowledge of the market, has consistently delivered outstanding results for his clients.

David's primary focus is on apartment sales in the San Fernando Valley, encompassing highly sought-after neighborhoods such as Sherman Oaks, Studio City, Toluca Lake, Valley Village, North Hollywood, Encino, and the surrounding areas. His in-depth understanding of these local markets enables him to provide tailored solutions to clients seeking to buy or sell multi-family properties in this region.

With a career spanning since 2021, David Saghian has rapidly risen to prominence in the Los Angeles real estate scene. His journey began at Deloitte, one of the world's leading consulting firms, where he honed his analytical skills and gained invaluable insights into business dynamics. Later, he transitioned to the world of finance, working as an Investment Banker at Park Lane. At Park Lane, David specialized in the sales of sports teams, demonstrating his versatility and adaptability in the world of high-stakes transactions.

David is highly regarded for his unwavering commitment to honesty and integrity. He approaches each real estate transaction with the utmost dedication to maximizing value for his clients. Whether you are a seasoned investor or a first-time buyer, David Saghian's personalized approach ensures that your real estate goals are met with precision and professionalism.

David's passion for real estate, coupled with his vast industry knowledge and dedication to his clients' success, sets him apart as a true leader in the field. When you partner with David, you can trust that you have an advocate who will navigate the complexities of the market on your behalf and deliver exceptional results.
