Kate Schmitz is an associate at Kidder Mathews with a primary focus on tenant representation in retail, industrial, office and medical space throughout the San Francisco Bay Area.

Kate Schmitz specializes in tenant representation, encompassing a broad spectrum of industries and clients throughout the Bay Area. She has orchestrated over one hundred transactions in retail, industrial, office and medical space spanning small venture-backed startups to publicly traded enterprises. Kate was born and raised in the Bay Area, offering deep market knowledge - combined with her unwavering dedication to client satisfaction that defines her approach.

Prior to entering the real estate business, Kate was an account executive for Cumulus Media, selling sponsorships for the San Francisco Giants, 49ers and Golden State Warriors where she earned numerous sales awards including Rookie of the Year.

In addition to Kate's real estate career, she volunteers for the Bay Area Make Wish chapter as a Wish Granter. Kate also advises her local sorority chapter, Chi Omega, at the Cal Berkeley campus.
