Darin Spillman is a senior vice president at Kidder Mathews with a primary focus on investment properties in Los Angeles County.

Darin Spillman grew up in Los Angeles and thrives on the region's unique mixture of beautiful weather, diverse culture, geography, entrepreneurial potential, and creative environment. As both a real estate investor and professional, Darin understands from experience the intricacies of owning, managing, buying, selling, and marketing investment properties.

Throughout his career, Darin's emphasis has focused on seller representation of retail and mixed-use assets as well as multifamily investments in L.A. County. Since 2001, Darin has sold over $1 billion in transactions.

His commitment to maintaining a straightforward communication style, focused listening skills, and attention to detail, has served to complement each client's long-term investment goals. Above all, Darin values the human aspect of brokerage; the professional relationships and friendships built over the years have resulted in a multitude of repeat clients and referrals.

Darin served as chair of the Planning & Land Use Committee of the Encino Neighborhood Council in L.A. for the 2021-2023 elected term. He also serves the community as a volunteer mentor for Imagine L.A., a non-profit which prevents first-time and repeat homelessness and equips families to thrive.
