

PETER STALICK

Executive Vice President, Shareholder

Peter Stalick is an executive vice president and a shareholder at Kidder Mathews specializing in industrial property sales and leasing. Peter is a University of Oregon graduate and started his real estate career in 2000 in Portland. Peter has over 20 years of experience representing industrial property owners, developers and occupants and advising them in all facets of their industrial property requirements. Over the past 12 years, Peter and his team with Steven Klein have successfully negotiated and closed 706 industrial property transactions totaling 27,320,906 square feet of industrial space. In the past 3 years, Peter’s team has closed transactions totaling over $523.2 Million in total consideration and his team has won the CAB/NAIOP “Industrial Brokerage Team of the Year” award for two years in a row (2019 and 2020) since the inception of this award category in 2019. Peter has a broad base of knowledge and experience with industrial property including land acquisition, underwriting, development and construction in addition to traditional marketing, leasing and sales of these properties. Peter and his team pride themselves on adding value to their clients on all aspects of their real estate decisions with a focus on long term objectives, rather than being solely transaction focused.
