For more than 25 years, Roger has developed the experience necessary to effectively orchestrate land development, build-to-suit and investment transactions.

Roger began working at Kidder Mathews in February of 1990. While focusing his efforts in the Woodinville/Monroe area, Roger has been involved in procuring transactions throughout the Eastside marketplace, as well as the Lynnwood/Everett area.

Roger has successfully established himself in the commercial real estate market by working on a myriad of projects that include marketing large parcels of land, leasing institutional developments, selling and leasing industrial buildings, and representing clients with their investment and/or facility relocation needs.

Prior to Kidder Mathews, Roger worked in Nordstrom's finance department, was a credit manager for Starbucks Coffee Company, and spent two years as a touring golf professional.

EDUCATION

Roger received his Bachelor of Science in finance from Arizona State University.
