

BRUCE WIRT, SIOR

Senior Vice President, Shareholder

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews as senior vice president, Bruce was with TRI Commercial, Cornish & Carey Commercial, and Newmark Knight Frank, specializing in all facets of office development. Bruce began his real estate career with the development firm Panattoni Oates and Massie in 1979. He then joined Coldwell Banker Commercial as an office leasing specialist in 1981, and in 1989 moved to Iliff Thorn and Company, which became Colliers International, and remained there as an office specialist for the next 20 years. He has been an office leader and top producer for years. Bruce has been involved in over 1,000 sale and lease transactions during his career. His depth of experience and unique real estate vision allows him to provide creative solutions to a myriad of real estate hurdles.

EDUCATION

Bruce attended the University of California, Davis and San Diego State University majoring in psychology, with a minor in African American studies.
