

ANDREW ZIMBALDI

Senior Vice President

T 949.557.5022
C 949.887.0923
andrew.zimbaldi@kidder.com
LIC N° 00512219

Andrew Zimbaldi is a senior vice president and provides asset management services out of the Irvine, California office.

Mr. Zimbaldi is also an active broker focusing on both leasing and sales throughout California. His practice includes strategic consulting to families, trusts, and financial institutions, as well as expert witness, receivership, and investment transactional work. Mr. Zimbaldi's receivership and expert witness practice provides services to the federal court system, as well as the courts in California, Nevada, Utah, and Arizona.

Prior to joining Kidder Mathews, Mr. Zimbaldi was the president of Alden Management Group, a Southern California property management firm. In his capacity as president of that firm, he worked extensively with major financial institutions, trust companies, and successful families helping them craft and operate large commercial investment portfolios.

EDUCATION

Mr. Zimbaldi has a Bachelor of Arts degree and a Master's degree in business administration from the University of Southern California with majors in economics and sociology. Andrew holds his real estate license from the state of California.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Mr. Zimbaldi is very involved in community activities. He is a former commodore of the Newport Harbor Yacht Club, former treasurer of the Newport Harbor Sailing Foundation, a founding director of El Viento Foundation, and the former vice chairman of the Newport Harbor Nautical Museum.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

California Receivers Forum Founding director

Association of Commercial Real Estate Executives member

Andrew was one of the founding directors of the Orange County chapter of NAIOP

Apartment Owners Association

Community Association Institute